Washington DC is home to an estimated 70,000 Latinos. According to 2010 Census data, almost 60% of DC Latinos reside in Wards 1 and 4. The Latino population in the city faces unique challenges in education, housing, health and other areas that many times are underserved. With nearly two-thirds of Latinos in the city residing in Wards 1 and 4, this timely conversation will seek to identify some vital information to help address the needs of Latinos in the city, particularly those in Wards 1 and 4. Everyone is invited to attend.

Ward 1 Councilmember Jim Graham

Ward 4 Councilmember Muriel Bowser
